Service area list for Group Retiree Medicare Advantage plans

Members can receive care away from home at their in-network cost-share

The UnitedHealth Passport® travel benefit is available to members of eligible Medicare Advantage plans. Passport gives eligible members access to participating care providers in specific counties in 26 states at their in-network cost-share when getting care outside of their home location.

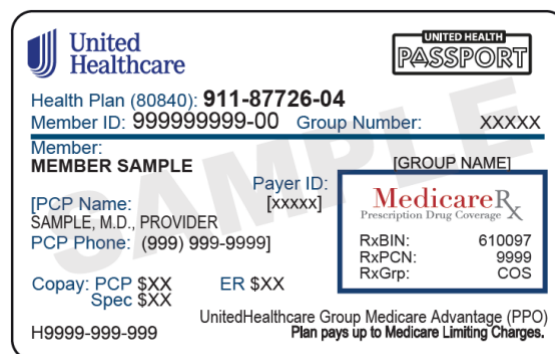

Coverage, cost-share and benefits will be determined based on the member's benefit plan.

Verifying member eligibility

When a member wants to get care while they're away from home, you can verify that their benefit plan includes Passport when the UnitedHealth Passport logo is on the member ID card or by calling Provider Services at 877-842-3210.

Using the service area list

Eligible members traveling to these service areas must call us to activate the benefit to receive up to 9 months of non-emergency health care starting on their first travel day away from home. Not all UnitedHealthcare plans in these areas offer Passport. For more information about these plans, visit UHCprovider.com/plans > choose your state > Medicare.
