U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

This section is to be used for informational purposes only. FDA approval alone is not a basis for coverage.

Knee replacement surgery is a procedure and therefore is not regulated by the FDA. However, devices and instruments used during the surgery require FDA approval. See the following website for additional information (product codes MBH, JWH, KRO): <http://www.accessdata.fda.gov/scripts/cdrh/cfdocs/cfPMN/pmnm.cfm>. (Accessed January 20, 2020)

FDA-approved knee replacement surgery devices are generally approved for any or all of the following:

- Non-inflammatory degenerative joint disease such as osteoarthritis

- Post-traumatic arthritis
- Complex fracture(s) of the distal (lower) femur
- Revision of failed knee replacement surgery
- Correction of functional deformity

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)

Medicare does not have a National Coverage Determination (NCD) for total knee and/or partial knee replacement surgery (arthroplasty). Local Coverage Determinations (LCDs) exist; see the LCDs for Lower Extremity Major Joint Replacement \(Hip and Knee\), Major Joint Replacement \(Hip and Knee\), Total Joint Arthroplasty and Total Knee Arthroplasty.
