Policy Summary

↪ See Purpose

The implantation of spinal cord stimulators (SCS) may be covered as therapies for the relief of chronic intractable pain. Therapy consists of a short trial with a percutaneous implantation of neurostimulator electrode(s) in the epidural space for assessing a patient’s suitability for ongoing treatment with a permanent surgically implanted nerve stimulator. Performance and documentation of an effective trial is a prerequisite for permanent nerve stimulation.

Selection of patients for implantation of spinal cord stimulators is critical to the success of this therapy. SCS therapy should be considered after more conservative attempts such as medications, physical therapy, psychological therapy or other modalities have been tried.

Patients must have undergone careful screening, evaluation and diagnosis by a multidisciplinary team prior to implantation. Such screening must include psychological, as well as physical evaluation. Documentation of the history and careful screening must be available in the patient chart if requested.

Note: This is not an all-inclusive description of coverage criteria. Refer to the appropriate LCDs for individual state coverage guidelines.

The inclusion of a code does not imply any right to reimbursement or guarantee claim payment. Other Policies and Guidelines may apply.
