

Cancer Pathways Program: Terms and Conditions

On Nov. 1, 2019, UnitedHealthcare introduced the new Cancer Therapy Pathways Program to promote the use of evidence-based and cost-effective regimens. Starting January 2020, we're excited to offer you the opportunity to earn rewards through our Cancer Therapy Pathways Program. The following are the terms and conditions of the Cancer Therapy Pathways Program rewards:

- Care providers must be in-network for eligible UnitedHealthcare commercial plans.
- Eligibility varies by health plan and is subject to all applicable laws and regulations.
- At a practice level, you must have at least five approved authorizations where a Cancer Therapy Pathway was offered.
- Care providers in the following states and U.S. territories are not eligible for rewards: Hawaii, North Carolina, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.
- Reward payments are made at a practice tax identification number (TIN) level.
- Rewards will not be paid for members who are covered by self-funded benefit plans sponsored by payers who have chosen not to participate in this reward program or to whom UnitedHealthcare has not offered the option to participate in this reward program.
- If there is any suspected fraud or abuse, UnitedHealthcare reserves the right to stop or discontinue reward payment(s).
- UnitedHealthcare reserves the right to change, cancel or modify the program and its features, including reward eligibility, at any time and to temporarily suspend the program at any time without prior notice.
- Additional restrictions may apply.
- You can find more information about this program at UHCprovider.com > Prior Authorization and Notification > Oncology > Cancer Therapy Pathways Program.
